

Year	Country	Method	Comment
1984	Mauritania	Coup	Colonel Maaouya Ould Sid'Ahmed Taya led a successful coup in December, overthrowing President Mohamed Khouna Ould Haidalla.
1984	Guinea	Coup	Colonel Lansana Conté led a coup, deposing Louis Lansana Beavogui and taking power himself.
1985	Nigeria	Coup	Chief of Army Staff General Ibrahim Babangida led a military coup which replaced Major General Muhammadu Buhari, and replaced the Supreme Military Council with the Armed Forces Ruling Council.
1985	Sudan	Coup	Defense Minister and Armed Forces Commander-in-Chief, Field Marshal Abdel Rahman Swar al-Dahab, led a coup against the government of President Jaafar Nimeiry.
1986	Sudan	Sig. Election	The elections marked the end of the Transitional Military Council's (TMC) rule, which had been in power since the 1985 coup, transitioning governance back to civilian rule
1987	Burkina faso	Coup	President Thomas Sankara was assassinated in a coup, and coup leader Captain Blaise Compaoré was installed as president.
1987	UAE	Coup	The coup destabilized the foundation of the UAE, and threatened it back into its constituent Emirates, however, the other Emirati leaders reinstalled the deposed Sultan bin Muhammad Al-Qasimi.
1987	Tunisia	Coup	Prime Minister Zine El Abidine Ben Ali overthrew President Habib Bourguiba.
1988	Pakistan	Sig. Election	After Zia's accidental death, the democratic socialists re-united and won under the PPP led by Bhutto; previously Zia had crushed the socialists, which had attempted to overthrow his military regime
1988	Azerbaijan	Secession	Nagorno-Karabakh Autonomous Oblast, an ethnic Armenian region in Azerbaijan, voted to secede and join Armenia. Decision was not recognized by the Soviets, leading to widespread ethnic violence
1989	Lebanon	Sig. Election	Moawad elected; Aoun refused to accept the result & continued governing as the unrecognized PM during the ongoing civil war, a car bomb killed Moawad, parliament then elected Hrawi as successor
1989	Sudan	Coup	Omar al-Bashir led a military coup on 30 June against the democratically elected government of Prime Minister Sadiq al-Mahdi and President Ahmed al-Mirghani.
1989	Iran	Sig. Election	Death of Ayatollah Khomeini and the selection of Ayatollah Ali Khamenei as the new Supreme Leader of Iran. The Iranian constitution was amended by referendum on the same day.
1990	Chad	Coup	Patriotic Salvation Movement (MPS), a Libyan-backed rebel group under the leadership of General Idriss Déby, entered the Chadian capital N'Djamena unopposed and took over
1990	Bangladesh	Revolution	The uprising was the result of a series of popular protests that led to the fall of General Hussain Muhammad Ershad in Bangladesh who came to power in 1982 in a coup
1990	Kuwait	Takeover	After defeating Kuwait, Iraq went on to militarily occupy the country for the next seven months. After initially establishing the "Republic of Kuwait" as a puppet state, Iraq annexed the entire country
1990	Pakistan	Sig. Election	President Khan dissolved the National Assembly and dismissed Bhutto's government on charges of corruption. IJI's parliamentary leader Sharif became PM while Bhutto became the Opposition Leader.
1990	Turkmenistan	Sig. Election	Presidential elections were held for the first time in the Turkmen SSR on 27 October 1990. The only candidate was Saparmurat Niyazov, who won 98% of the vote.
1990	Yemen	New Republic	People's Democratic Republic of Yemen (South Yemen) was united with the Yemen Arab Republic (North Yemen), forming the Republic of Yemen
1991	Kuwait	Takeover	The Iraqi military had been devastated. Kuwait regains independence and governance restored.
1991	Somalia	Coup	Guerrilla forces performed a successful coup against the Siad Barre government. Mohamed Farah Aideed, the general most responsible for the coup, declared himself the ruling president.
1991	Ethiopia	Coup	On 28 May 1991, Mengistu's government was overthrown by its own officials and a coalition of rebel forces after their bid for a push on the capital Addis Ababa became successful.
1991	Eritrea	Independence	The Eritrean War of Independence: Eritrean independence fighters waged against successive Ethiopian governments, finding success and establishing governance in 1991
1991	Somaliland	Independence	The SNM announced restoration of the independence of "Somaliland" and the formation of an interim administration whereby Abdirahman Ahmed Ali Tuur was elected to govern
1991	Djibouti	Takeover	In mid-1991, the Front for the Restoration of Unity and Democracy (FRUD) seized all military posts in the north of the country and laid siege to the city of Tadjoura and Obock.
1991	Mali	Coup	Coup d'état resulted in the overthrow of President Moussa Traoré after over two decades of dictatorship.
1991	Sierra Leone	Takeover	Civil war where RUF with support of Liberian dictator took over governance of large swathes of territory in eastern and southern Sierra Leone. RUF took over government diamond production.
1991	Bangladesh	Sig. Election	The Bangladesh Nationalist Party formed a government with the support of the Islamic party Jamaat-e-Islami, and Khaleda Zia was sworn in for her first term as Prime Minister
1992	Algeria	Coup	A military coup in Algeria canceled elections and cancelled electoral processes, forced President Chadli Bendjedid to resign and brought in the exiled Mohamed Boudiaf to serve as the new president
1992	Afghanistan	Dissolution	Second civil war immediately followed the 1989–1992 civil war with the mujahideen victory and dissolution of the Republic of Afghanistan in April 1992.
1992	Sierra Leone	Coup	The government's ineffective response to the RUF and the disruption in government diamond production precipitated a military coup. They deposed Momoh and Strasser took control of the government.
1992	Azerbaijan	Sig. Election	Presidential elections were held in Azerbaijan. The elections were the first in Azerbaijan in more than seventy years not held under communist control.
1992	Tajikistan	Revolution	Protests, unrest and civil war led to the capture of president Nabiyeu by opposition protesters and he was forced at gunpoint to resign his presidency.
1993	Niger	Sig. Election	They were the presidential elections held in the country since independence in 1960, following constitutional changes approved in a referendum the previous year. Ruling party lost.
1993	Nigeria	Coup	Military coup which took place when the Armed Forces, headed by Defence Minister General Abacha, forced Interim President Chief Ernest Shonekan to resign, and assumed control
1993	Pakistan	Sig. Election	Elections took place after both the Prime Minister Sharif and President Khan resigned under pressure of the Army to resolve a power struggle. Benazir Bhutto became PM for 2nd non-consecutive term.
1993	Palestine	Formation	Palestinian Authority (PA) was created to govern the west bank and Gaza Strip in the Oslo Accords.
1993	Azerbaijan	Sig. Election	Military coup overthrowing President Abulfaz Elchibey who was elected in independent Azerbaijan's first free election in 1992
1994	Nigeria	Misc.	Abacha issued a decree that placed his government above the jurisdiction of the courts, effectively giving him absolute power. Another decree gave him the right to detain anyone for up to three months
1994	Gambia	Coup	A group of soldiers seized power ousting Dawda Jawara, who had been President of the Gambia since its independence in 1970.
1994	Yemen	Sig. Election	YSP leaders within Yemen reorganized following the civil war and elected a new politburo. Much of its influence had been destroyed in the war. President Ali Abdallah Saleh was elected by Parliament
1995	Qatar	Coup	Crown Prince Hamad took control of the country while his father, Khalifa, was away. Many members of the Al Thani family who were still allies of Khalifa had tried another coup to restore control but failed.
1995	Algeria	Sig. Election	Boudiaf was assassinated months after his placement in 1992. In 1995, Algeria held its first presidential election since. The election was won by Liamine Zéroual in the midst of the civil war.
1996	Niger	Coup	Military coup ousted Niger's first democratically elected president, Mahamane Ousmane. PM Hama Amadou was arrested in the coup and several soldiers and presidential guards were killed in the fighting
1996	Sierra Leone	Sig. Election	The first elections following a referendum on a new constitution in 1991. Installed an elected civilian government and the retreating RUF signed the Abidjan Peace Accord.
1996	Nigeria	Coup	Ibrahim Baré Mainassara overthrows Mahamane Ousmane.
1996	Sudan	Sig. Election	The first elections since 1986 due to a military coup in 1989, and the first simultaneous elections for the presidency and National Assembly.

1996	Afghanistan	Takeover	The Taliban had captured Kabul, killed the country's president, and established the Islamic Emirate of Afghanistan.
1996	Bangladesh	Sig. Election	The result was a victory for the Bangladesh Awami League, beginning Sheikh Hasina's first-term as Prime Minister.
1996	Palestine	Sig. Election	A new government was formed following the elections, headed by President Yasser Arafat.
1997	Turkey	Coup	Military memorandum (also known as the Post-modern coup): Military decisions issued in a National Security Council resulted in the resignation of Prime Minister Necmettin Erbakan.
1997	Pakistan	Sig. Election	Landslide victory for the PML. Sharif subsequently became Prime Minister for a second non-consecutive term. The PPP meanwhile got wiped out.
1997	Iran	Sig. Election	Unpredicted win for the reformist candidate Mohammad Khatami.
1997	Sierra Leone	Coup	SLA officers staged a coup and established the Armed Forces Revolutionary Council (AFRC) as the new government of Sierra Leone.
1998	Indonesia	Revolution	Mass violence, and civil unrest throughout Indonesia, triggered by economic problems and food shortages eventually led to the resignation of President Suharto and the fall of the New Order.
1998	Lebanon	Sig. Election	An indirect presidential election was held in the Parliament of Lebanon on 13 October 1998, resulting in General Emile Lahoud being elected President of the Lebanese Republic.
1999	Nigeria	Coup	Ibrahim Baré Mainassara was assassinated by Daouda Malam Wanké during the coup.
1999	Niger	Sig. Election	These were the first elections since the 1993 coup and the start of the Fourth Republic of Niger.
1999	Pakistan	Coup	General Musharraf seized control of the civilian government in a bloodless coup, ousted Prime Minister Nawaz Sharif, imposed martial law, and declared a state of emergency.
1999	Ivory Coast	Coup	Group of soldiers led by Tuo Fozzié rebelled on 23 December, overthrowing President Henri Konan Bédié.
1999	Algeria	Sig. Election	President Zéroual announced early elections and said he wouldn't run, reportedly due to infighting within the Algerian army
2000	Senegal	Sig. Election	Opposition leader Abdoulaye Wade defeated incumbent Abdou Diouf in a major democratic transition ending decades of Socialist Party rule
2001	Afghanistan	Overthrow	U.S.-led invasion (October 2001) in response to 9/11, Taliban regime was overthrown by December 2001
2001	Indonesia	Impeachment	President Abdurrahman Wahid was impeached and removed from office amid political crisis, leading to Megawati Sukarnoputri's rise
2002	Afghanistan	New Gov.	In June 2002, the Afghan Interim Authority (AIA) was formally established, headed by Hamid Karzai as the interim leader.
2002	Indonesia	Independence	East Timor (Timor-Leste) officially gained independence from Indonesia, became the first new country of the 21st century.
2003	Iraq	Overthrow	US led invasion in March 2003 toppled Saddam Hussein's regime; massive regime change with long-term regional consequences.
2003	Cn. African R.	Coup	General François Bozizé led a successful military coup that ousted President Ange-Félix Patassé. The coup followed months of rebellion and instability, with Bozizé's forces capturing the capital, Bangui.
2003	Guinea-Bissau	Coup	President Kumba Ialá was overthrown in a bloodless military coup led by General Veríssimo Correia Seabra. The constitution was suspended. A transitional government was put in place.
2003	Liberia	Resignation	President Charles Taylor resigned and went into exile seeking asylum in Nigeria under international pressure amid a brutal civil war, leading to the formation of a UN-backed transitional government.
2005	Nepal	Royal Coup	King Gyanendra of Nepal seized direct control by dismissing the civilian government, suspending the constitution, and imposing emergency rule, effectively establishing absolute monarchy.
2005	Togo	Succession	Following the sudden death of longtime President Eyadéma, the military bypassed constitutional succession and installed his son, Faure Gnassingbé, as president.
2005	Mauritania	Coup	Mauritania's military ousted longtime President Taya in a bloodless coup, establishing a transitional government that promised democratic reforms.
2005	Kyrgyzstan	Revolution	Tulip Revolution forced President Akayev to resign amid mass protests demanding democratic reforms.
2005	Iraq	Sig. Election	Parliamentary elections were held in Iraq on 30 January 2005 to elect the new National Assembly, alongside governorate elections and a parliamentary election in Kurdistan Region.
2006	Somalia	Partial Overthrow	Mid 2006, Somalia's Islamic Courts Union seized control of Mogadishu and much of southern Somalia, overthrowing warlord rule and sidelining the weak Transitional Federal Government
2006	Somalia	Regain Control	Late 2006, Ethiopian military forces intervened to support the Transitional Federal Government, the Islamic Courts Union withdrew from the city on December 26
2006	Palestine	Sig. Election	Hamas won a shock parliamentary victory over Fatah. Hamas leader Haniyeh was nominated to form a new government. The new government with Haniyeh as Prime Minister was sworn in on 29 March.
2007	Bangladesh	Takeover	Army pressured President Iajuddin to declare a state of emergency. A military-backed government was installed under Chief Adviser Fakhruddin Ahmed, marking a de facto military takeover
2007	Pakistan	Self Coup	President (and Army Chief) Pervez Musharraf declared a state of emergency, suspended the constitution, dismissed Supreme Court judges, and imposed martial law.
2007	Mauritania	Sig. Election	After the 2005 coup, free presidential elections were held. Sidi Ould Cheikh Abdallahi elected president; military handed over power.
2007	Palestine	Internal Split	After months of conflict, Hamas forcibly took control of Gaza, while Fatah retained the West Bank. This led to two rival Palestinian governments.
2008	Mauritania	Coup	Military led by General Abdel Aziz staged a coup, overthrowing President Sidi Ould Cheikh Abdallahi, swiftly established a High State Council, effectively replacing the democratically elected government
2008	Guinea	Coup	Following President Lansana Conté's death, the military, led by Captain Moussa Dadis Camara, seized power, suspended the constitution, and declared control.
2008	Nepal	Overthrow	Nepal monarchy was officially abolished by the Constituent Assembly. Successful overthrow of the monarchy. Nepal became a secular federal republic. King Gyanendra left the palace within 15 days.
2008	Lebanon	Reconciliation	Hezbollah launched armed takeover of West Beirut overpowering pro-government forces. Doha Agreement signed creating a national unity government. Hezbollah granted veto power over Govt decisions.
2008	Maldives	Sig. Election	Maldives ended 30 years of autocratic rule as Mohamed Nasheed defeated long-time president Gayoom in the country's first democratic election. Historic power shift toward multiparty democracy.
2008	Bangladesh	New Govt	Government change, shifting from a military-backed caretaker regime to an elected civilian government:
2008	Pakistan	Sig. Election	Transition from nearly a decade of military-backed autocracy as Musharraf resigned & civilian rule restored through elections, with PPP forming the government & ending military dominance over politics.
2009	Guinea-Bissau	Coup	Guinea-Bissau plunged into chaos after the military assassinated both the president and army chief, triggering a coup that toppled the government and ushered in military-dominated transitional rule
2010	Niger	Coup	Military seized power, toppling President Tandja after his attempts to extend rule unconstitutionally, established a military junta called the Supreme Council for the Restoration of Democracy (CSRĐ)
2010	Kyrgyzstan	Revolt	Violent protests forcing President Bakiyev to flee the capital, effectively being overthrown. Interim government was formed
2010	Guinea	Sig. Election	Guinea held its first democratic presidential elections since the coup. Alpha Condé won the presidency, becoming the country's first democratically elected leader in decades.
2011	Tunisia	Revolution	President Ben Ali fled the country after mass protests sparked a nationwide revolution.

2011	Egypt	Revolution	Hosni Mubarak resigned following 18 days of mass protests and military pressure. The military took over temporarily, prompting the dismantling of his authoritarian state.
2011	Libya	Collapse	Following an armed uprising starting February in Benghazi, the National Transitional Council emerged. A civil war led to the overthrow and killing of Muammar Gaddafi after months of fighting.
2011	Yemen	Exit	President Ali Abdullah Saleh was forced to transfer power under Gulf-brokered deal following months of protests and violent repression.
2011	Morocco	Reform	King Mohammed VI introduced constitutional reforms to ease protests. New constitution via referendum to curb monarchical power
2011	Oman	Reform	Protests led Sultan Qaboos to replace ministers, expand powers for parliament and hold municipal elections
2011	Jordan	Concession	King Abdullah II replaced the prime minister in response to protests. Also responded with repeated cabinet dismissals and constitutional amendments
2011	South Sudan	Independence	South Sudan declared its independence from Sudan after a referendum where the majority voted for separation. This independence followed a long period of conflict, including two civil wars
2012	Mali	Coup	Military overthrew President Amadou Toumani Touré following dissatisfaction with his handling of a Tuareg rebellion.
2012	Guinea-Bissau	Coup	Military seized power before the second round of presidential elections. Transition government later formed under international pressure.
2012	Egypt	Sig. Election	Mohamed Morsi of the Muslim Brotherhood elected president in Egypt's first democratic election after Mubarak.
2012	Libya	Sig. Election	First free elections held since Gaddafi's fall; General National Congress took over.
2012	Somalia	New Govt	After years of transitional governments, Somalia formed a new federal government, ending the transitional period.
2013	Egypt	Coup	President Mohamed Morsi was deposed by the military after mass protests against his rule. Suspended the 2012 constitution. General Abdel Fattah el-Sisi took control and later became president.
2013	Cn. African R.	Coup	Rebel group Séléka overthrew President François Bozizé.
2014	Yemen	Overthrow	The Houthi rebel movement seized control of Sana'a, forcing the government into a power-sharing agreement.
2014	Tunisia	Sig. Election	Parliamentary and presidential elections, completing its democratic transition after the 2011 revolution
2014	Burkina Faso	Coup	President Compaoré, who had ruled for 27 years, attempted to amend the constitution and sparked mass protests. Military stepped in, Compaoré resigned, and a transitional government was installed.
2014	Iraq	Partial Takeover	ISIS seized Mosul, they displaced that government and imposed their own strict, militant governance, seizing government functions.
2015	Yemen	Coup	President and cabinet resigned under pressure from Houthi rebels, who then dissolved parliament and declared a new governing council. Triggered a Saudi-led military intervention and full-scale civil war.
2015	Nepal	Reform	New constitution adopted, restructuring the state, reshaping its political system but triggering unrest among minority groups.
2015	Libya	New Govt	The UN brokered the Libyan Political Agreement leading to the formation of the Government of National Accord (GNA) in Tripoli
2016	Lebanon	Resolution	After a two-year vacancy, Michel Aoun was elected president in October 2016, ending political deadlock.
2017	Iraq	Recovery	Iraqi government retakes Mosul, ending ISIS's control, reestablishing government in Mosul.
2017	Gambia	Sig. Election	After refusing to step down following his December 2016 election loss, longtime ruler Yahya Jammeh was forced into exile in January 2017. This ended Jammeh's 22-year authoritarian rule.
2018	Turkey	Referendum	Constitutional referendum passed in 2017 took effect, changing Turkey's system to a strong presidential model under Erdoğan.
2018	Lebanon	Resolution	Following months without a government, Saad Hariri was reappointed prime minister, ending the political stalemate.
2018	Yemen	Division	Yemen's government lost effective control of its temporary capital Aden after UAE-backed separatists seized it—leaving Yemen even more divided and without a unified governing authority.
2019	Sudan	Coup	Longtime president Omar al-Bashir was removed by military coup after months of protests. Led to a transitional government involving civilians and military.
2019	Algeria	Resignation	After months of mass protests (Hirak Movement), President Abdelaziz Bouteflika resigned in April 2019. Marked a significant leadership change after 20+ years in power.
2020	Mali	Coup	Mali's military overthrew President Keita in a coup after mass protests, dissolving the government and installing a military junta
2020	Lebanon	Resignation	Following the Beirut port explosion, Prime Minister Diab's government resigned amid public outrage over corruption and mismanagement. Marked a significant political crisis and leadership vacuum.
2021	Myanmar	Coup	Myanmar's military seized power, detaining Aung San Suu Kyi and other leaders, ending a decade of quasi-civilian rule.
2021	Guinea	Coup	The military removed President Condé amid political tensions and protests over his controversial third term.
2021	Chad	Military Takeover	President Idriss Déby was killed while fighting with rebels. The military dissolved the government & installed his son as head of a Transitional Military Council, bypassing constitutional succession.
2021	Afghanistan	Takeover	Taliban seized Kabul, and President Ashraf Ghani fled the country. The US backed Afghan government collapsed, and the Islamic Emirate of Afghanistan was restored under Taliban rule.
2021	Sudan	Military Takeover	The military dissolved the transitional government, arrested civilian leaders including PM Abdalla Hamdok, and took full control. This reversed much of the progress made after the 2019 revolution.
2022	Burkina Faso	Coup	Soldiers led by Damiba ousted President Roch Marc Christian Kaboré citing failure to stop Islamist insurgencies.
2022	Burkina Faso	Coup	Another coup removed interim President Damiba, led by Traoré accusing him of the same failures. Traoré became the new interim head of state making Burkina Faso one of the most unstable nations.
2022	Sri Lanka	Resignation	Severe economic crisis led to massive protests; President Gotabaya Rajapaksa fled the country and resigned.
2022	Tunisia	Power Grab	President Kais suspended parliament, rewrote the constitution to cement one-man rule, effectively dismantling the democratic gains of the Arab Spring & ending a decade of parliamentary governance.
2023	Niger	Coup	Soldiers from the presidential guard detained elected President Mohamed Bazoum and declared a military junta.
2023	Sudan	Gov't Collapse	Full scale civil war between the SAF and the paramilitary RSF shattered the transitional process and left the state functionally collapsed, with two rival military factions fighting for control.
2024	Bangladesh	Coup	Bangladesh's military ousted PM Sheikh Hasina amid violent student protests over job quotas, installing an interim government, triggering political instability and regional tensions.
2024	Tigray	Coup	Interim Regional Administration of Tigray president Getachew Reda was overthrown by the Tigray People's Liberation Front.
2024	Syria	Overthrow	The Assad regime collapsed during a major offensive by opposition forces.